WHAT SUCCESS LOOKS LIKE

- Punctual and reliable
- Calm problem solver
- Guest-focused
- Team player
- Sound judgment
- Safety first
- Positive, can-do attitude

The successful candidate handles change and delays with ease because buses sometimes arrive late, supports special dietary needs so everyone eats well, and is at ease working around children because they are the heart of our work.

QUALIFICATIONS

- 1 - 5 years of related experience or degree. Experience cooking for large groups preferred
- Strong communication, organization and kitchen math. Valid driver's license.
- Safe Food Serving Certification. Wolf Ridge will help you earn it if you do not hold it.
- Favorable background screening, as the role works with children.

PHYSICAL DEMANDS AND WORK SETTING

- On your feet about 95% of the shift, with reaching, stooping, kneeling and crouching.
- Regularly lift up to 25 lb (cases of food), occasionally up to 40 lb.
- Noise from quiet to loud, hot stoves and water, cold freezers, sharp tools and machinery. The kitchen can run hot in summer.
