

Wolf Ridge ELC Minnesota Academic Standards Matrix

		2. Recognize that cells need food, water and air, a way to dispose of waste, and an environment in which they can live.
8. Diversity of Organisms	The student will know that living things can be sorted into groups in many ways according to their varied characteristics, structures and behaviors.	1. The student will classify plants and animals according to their physical characteristics. 2. Learn that the characteristics used for grouping depend on the purpose of the grouping.	1	1	1	1	1	2	1	1	1	1
6. Human Organism	The student will know the structures that serve various functions in the human body, including protection from disease.	1. The student will understand that humans have structures that serve functions in growth, survival and reproduction. 2. Know that germs entering the body can cause disease, and that the body has defenses against these germs. 3. Know that there are many diseases that can be prevented by vaccination.																																																