INFORMATION & RULES

- The behavior expectations of the Wolf Ridge apply during transportation. If a camper does not comply, action will be taken according to the behavior plan including the camper being dismissed from camp or unable to ride on transportation to/from camp.
- Campers must remain seated, and wear seatbelts.
- Campers should use inside voices.
- Campers should keep hands to themselves and treat others with respect.
- Windows remain closed (there is air conditioning on the bus and van).
- Please plan to eat lunch before arriving or provide your own lunch and/or snacks for the ride to Wolf Ridge.
- Technology and snacks will be collected when arriving at Wolf Ridge, to be returned on the last day of camp.
- Wolf Ridge staff will have a cell phone and emergency numbers. If the transport is going to be late, Wolf Ridge staff will call to inform you.

REGISTRATION

Participants must pre-register and pre-pay to use Wolf Ridge Camp Transportation services. Transportation is available based on a minimum number of registered riders. If the minimum number is not met and transportation cannot be offered, families will be notified well in advance so they have time to make alternate arrangements. No refunds are made on participant canceled transportation. May 1 is the final day to register for transportation; no registrations will be accepted after this date. To register, use the online camp portal or call the main office at 218-353-7414.
